HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, December 7th, 1821.

No. 547 the prize of $40,000:

This lucky Number, the first drawn yesterday afternoon in the Grand State Lottery of Maryland, and agreeably to the scheme entitled to the great and splendid Capital of FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, was sold at COHEN'S OFFICE on the 5th of last month. We have peculiar pleasure in announcing it, as the property of a distant adventurer. The fortunate owner of this splendid favor of Fortune is a gentleman residing in Albemarle county, in the state of Virginia; his name and particular place of residence we shall give for the information of our customers as soon as we have his permission to do so; in the mean time we must remark the astonishing luck which attends the investments at this Office. It will be recollected that the 10,000 dollar prize was sent to a gentleman in Ohio, and that one half and one quarter of the 5000 dollar prize also drawn in the present lottery were owned by adventurers at a distance from Baltimore; besides a large number of the One thousand dollar prizes.

The Thousand dollar prize drawn yesterday afternoon, No. 8383, is owned by one of the Clubs holding an hundred tickets, formed agreeably to our proposals in the Register during the month of June last.

Tickets in the Washington Monument Lottery will be advanced to Ten Dollars on Thursday next, the 13th Inst.—all orders received previous to that time, will be supplied at the original rate of Nine Dollars. Prizes in the State Lottery will be received in payment, the same as Cash.

At a meeting of the President and Directors of the Bank of the United States, on the 20th Nov. 1821, the following named gentlemen were duly elected Directors of the Office of Discount and Deposit of the Bank at Baltimore for the ensuing year, viz:

John Donnell, Alexander Brown, Roswell L. Colt, John M'Kim, Jun. Samuel M'Donald, Isaac Edmondson, James Hutton, *George Hoffman, *Joseph W. Patterson, *William S. Moore, *James Beatty, *Talbot Jones, and *Robert A. Taylor.

Extract from the minutes.

THOMAS WILSON, Cashier.

*New Directors.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

The first session of the seventeenth Congress commenced on Monday last agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution. There was no choice of Speaker on that day, the House having adjourned without having made an appointment, although seven ballotings took place. On Tuesday at the fifth balloting a choice was made, the votes being thus:

For Philip P. Barbour of Virginia	-	88
John W. Taylor of New-York	-	67
Henry Baldwin of Pennsylvania	-	6
Samuel Smith of Maryland	-	4
Cæsar A. Rodney of Delaware	-	3
Scattering	-	4

This result having been reported by the Tellers, the Clerk pronounced that PHILIP P. BARBOUR, Esq.

one of the Representatives from the state of Virginia having received a majority of the whole Number of votes was duly elected. Mr. B. being conducted to the Chair tendered his acknowledgments to the House accordingly.

BALTIMORE.

The following historical facts which have been handed to us by a friend, show the rapid and unparalleled increase of Baltimore. We hear much about the Western Country, but we believe that in rapidity of growth, that country affords no parallel to Baltimore.

"In 1729, four commissioners purchased the ground on which this city has been erected, for the sum of 40 shillings per acre. One of these commissioners, Doctor George Buchanan, remained in the office of town commissioner till the time of his death. Baltimore was then a very inconsiderable village. One of the sons of this gentleman, lives to witness its rapid rise to wealth and importance. Baltimore in the year 1816, paid into the treasury of the United States, duties to the immense amount of $3,365,962 74."

What a wonderful country is ours! How like enchantment, do villages, towns and cities spring up in it! The fabled stories we read in our childhood of fairy creation have become reality. There are people now living in this city, who were born before the year 1729, when Baltimore was but a barren heath or quagmire; now it contains at least 70,000 inhabitants.

Other parts of the country have increased, and are still increasing, in almost as great a ratio.—Where but a few years ago, the face of the earth was covered with a howling wilderness—where nothing was to be seen but lofty forests, roving wild beasts, and the wandering savage—where civilized man had never penetrated, we now see towns and villages, and the elegancies and refinements of civilization. The earth is made to yield her annual increase, and the busy hum of industry animates the joyful scene. Why is it that the like is to be found in no other country on earth? Other countries have uncultivated wildernesses, with an abundant population, and all the physical means of subduing the ruggedness of nature and compelling the earth to yield her annual tribute to the necessities and comforts of the human family. Yet in these countries we see no such rapid improvements. Man is surely the same animal in America, that he is in Europe or Asia—as capable of labor, and stimulated to it by the same motives.—As there are no physical causes which can produce this difference, we must look for it among moral ones. These moral causes consist principally, we apprehend, in the perfect liberty every man has to pursue his own interests, and the perfect security with which he enjoys the fruit of his own industry.—Telegraph.

Unfortunate accident.—On Thursday last, about noon, the Citizen's Coach from New York for Philadelphia, was run away with, a quarter of a mile to the eastward of Brunswick. The driver being thrown from his seat, and the horses ascending the hill leading to the bridge at full speed, they were checked in their course by driving against a strong post, when the carriage upset and was dashed to pieces. They were within three yards of the draw, which was open, and a sloop passing. Mr. Wallack, the celebrated tragedian, a lady, and four others, were in the vehicle. Mr. Wallack, we state with great regret, received a compound fracture of his left leg, which was broken in two places—the rest escaped with slight injury. To the eminent and deserving performer, who suffered on this occasion, the misfortunes must be very severe; and greatly interrupt his brilliant professional career.—Patriot.

The merchants of Boston, held a meeting on Friday week, (T. H. Perkins, Esq. in the chair,) and voted, that the present state of the mercantile community calls loudly for the passage of a bankrupt act, and a committee of five was appointed to draw up a petition to congress to make such a law. A committee was also to be appointed for the purpose of communicating with the other commercial towns and cities on this important subject.

A festival in honor of Dr. Jenner, to whom the world is indebted for the discovery of vaccinated, was celebrated at Berlin by a splendid banquet, at which all the faculty of the city, together with the most eminent individuals in the kingdom were present. The counsellor of state, M. Hufeland, presented at the banquet a list of the children vaccinated in Prussia during the year, 1819. The number was upwards of 400,000.

Timely notice.—The Managers of the 5th class of the WASHINGTON MONUMENT LOTTERY, have notified the public of the intended advance of the tickets to Ten Dollars on Thursday the 13th inst. Until that day the original rate of Nine Dollars will be continued. ORDERS for Tickets from any part of the United States will meet prompt attention, addressed to J. I. COHEN, Jr. Secretary to the Managers, Baltimore.

The capital prizes in the scheme are 30,000 dollars—20,000 dollars—10,000, &c. &c.—the whole payable in Cash. Not two Blanks to a prize.—Amongst other inducements in the scheme, we notice that the first drawn 3,000 blanks are entitled to Ten Dollars each! which affords a great advantage to the early adventurer.

Both the Blanks and Prizes are to be drawn, and the drawing to be conducted under the superintendence of the Commissioners appointed by the Governor and Council of State.

A London paper, assures us that the Proprietors of Covent Garden Theatre, have cleared seventeen thousand Guineas, by the representation of George Fourth's Coronation.

Beware of Counterfeits.—This morning a number of counterfeit Ten Dollar Notes, of the Philadelphia Bank, have appeared in Circulation, and of a plate of Murray, Draper, Fairman, & Co. —The paper is much fairer than the genuine—the signatures are stiff, generally, and the Q and C in the Cashier's name are particularly so. Though the engraving at a first glance appears well done, yet on a little examination, it will be found very defective. The vignette is coarse and the house appears larger and more prominent than the good note, the denomination 10 is not placed in the centre of the die impression, which gives it a crooked appearance. The filling up appears also stiff and clumsy.—Dem. Press.

The Abbe Raynal and the Abbe Galignani, who were both incessant talkers, were invited to the house of a mutual friend, who wished to amuse himself by bringing them together.—Galignani began the conversation, engrossed it so thoroughly, and talked with such volubility, that Raynal could not find the least opening to introduce a word; but turning to his friend, said, in a low voice, "S'il crache, il est perdu."

If he stops to spit, it is all over with him.
